Dear ~~MR. Temianka~~: Henri:

Thank you very much for writing me concerning the Arab threat to peace in the Middle East.

I am in complete agreement with your position and am enclosing a reprint of my speech from the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD outlining what I believe should be the policy of the United States.

It is my hope that not only will we be able to preserve the freedom of Israel through the current crisis, but that we may also establish adequate international safeguards so that this constant threat of Arab aggression can be brought to a halt.

You may be assured that I will work in whatever way possible to bring this about.

Sincerely,

THOMAS M. REES
